

IACI

International Association of Craniofacial Identification

International Association of Craniofacial Identification

IACI 2019
BATON ROUGE
LSU • USA

IACI 2019 Theme:
"Facing the Future of Craniofacial Identification."

A Call for Abstracts will be made shortly and we encourage you to submit your very best and latest research in the craniofacial domain as pertains to forensic identification for a podium or poster presentation.

An overview of the schedule is included below:

- |                    |  |
|--------------------|--|
| Saturday, 13 July  | All day – Registration, WorkshopsEvening – South Louisiana Feast   |
| Sunday, 14 July    | All day - Registration, WorkshopsAfternoon – Board of Governors MeetingEvening - Welcome Reception   |
| Monday, 15 July    | All day - Academic Sessions (Including Poster and Oral Presentations)Evening – Free time   |
| Tuesday, 16 July   | Morning – Early Afternoon – Academic Sessions (Oral Presentations)Late Afternoon – Business MeetingEvening – Formal Dinner at Houmas House Plantationhttps://houmashouse.com/ |
| Wednesday, 17 July | New Orleans Lagniappe ("A little something extra")   |

The entire day will be spent in New Orleans. Delegates can spend the day exploring the French Quarter, Uptown Garden District, Audubon Park, or "Cities of the Dead," or they can choose to take a morning excursion, leaving the afternoon free to explore. The options for morning excursions will include an airboat ride through the swamp, or a paddleboat cruise down the Mississippi River. Delegates will be returned to the conference hotel in Baton Rouge by 10 PM that evening.